Handwriting practice grid for the Japanese character 'い' (i). The grid consists of 4 columns and 6 rows. The first row is pre-filled with the character 'い' in the first column, followed by two columns of faint 'い' characters for tracing. The remaining three rows are empty for practice. A speech bubble with the letter 'i' is in the top left. Red arrows and numbers 1 and 2 indicate the stroke order: 1. diagonal down from top-right to middle-left, 2. vertical down from middle-left to bottom.
